New Feature

Greetings from Bernat®

I'm Gayle Bunn, one of the Bernat® designers and this is my companion Harry. My family and I live in rural Ontario where blankets are essential to keep us warm by the fire. Over the years I've made several blankets which are all well-loved, but it might be time for some updating. I'm happy we have the new selection of chunky weight designs in Get Cozy which will be so fast to make and super warm. I also like to have knit or crochet slippers in child and adult sizes handy in the mud room for guests who visit. I keep those well out of Harry's reach since he considers them his chew toys. Harry loves hand-made slippers, but not in a good way!

Cheers,
The Bernat® Design Team
